

Thomy Jordi is leaving Nik Bärtsch's RONIN on friendly terms.
Jeremias Keller joins the band as new bass player.

After nine years, bassist Thomy Jordi (who replaced Björn Meyer in 2011) is leaving Nik Bärtsch's RONIN on friendly terms to concentrate more on different bands and projects. We are very happy and honored to have Jeremias Keller, multi instrumentalist, composer and producer (Jeremias Keller's Vertigo, Lakota, www.jeremiaskeller.ch) replacing him.

Thomy (www.thomyjordi.com) has been a member of RONIN and our community for a long time. Before joining the band in 2011 he was subbing for Björn Meyer on two international tours and had already played many times for the MONTAGS-series between 2004 and 2011, often even together with Björn Meyer, who himself still joins the MONTAGS-sessions from time to time as a guest. We are looking forward to have Thomy and Björn as guests also in the future!

We are thankful for Thomy's huge contribution to the band's history and music and the time together.

We are grateful for his inspiration, musical ideas, live-presence and companionship.

The farewell concert for Thomy will take place as soon as the MONTAGS concerts at EXIL club are taking place in public again.

At the moment these concerts are live streamed on www.yourtsage.live.

We are very much looking forward to welcoming Jeremias this Monday and to opening a new chapter in the RONIN band story.
